

Free Documentary Screening & Panel Discussion

The Pendleton 2: They Stood Up documentary is presented by the Defense Committee to Free the Pendleton 2. The film details the stories of John "Balagoon" Cole and Christopher "Naeem" Trotter, the 1985 Pendleton, Indiana uprising that saved the life of Lincoln "Lokmar" Love and the continued fight for freedom after four decades of unjust incarceration and solitary confinement.

THE PENDLETON TWO THEY STOOD UP

The HUUB
35 Cleveland Street
City of Orange, NJ

Thursday, October 12
Doors open at 5:30pm
Screening begins at 6pm
Panel immediately to follow

Limited tickets now available:

Panel Moderator: Linda Carter, ESQ
Panelists:
Too Black, Film Co-director
Leon Benson, Artist and Public Speaker
Kalonji Changa, Founder of the FTP Movement
Renee Johnston, Abolition Organizer

Learn more about the Pendleton 2: www.pendleton2.com

The event is supported by: The Green Party of Union County; Montclair Beyond Policing; The New Afrikan Black Panther Party; North Jersey Socialist Party; Public Squared Amplified